

SPECIAL DISPLAYS FORM

National Stereoscopic
Association
Convention, Irving in 2005
July 13-18, 2005

NSA has several traditional exhibitions that are run separately from the Trade Show and Theater. These are the NSA Stereocard competition and exhibition described elsewhere and the annual SSA/PSA Stereocard exhibition which is entered separately through PSA.

In addition to these two, NSA invites anyone to submit stereoscopic art and work, in any format that is suitable for display to the public.

Examples of work may include, but are not limited to large side by side stereo images, large anaglyphs, stereoscopic drawings or stereoscopic sculpture.

Anyone wishing to participate may do so. Traditionally a separate room or area which is attended and protected will be used for these displays.

NSA Convention staff reserves the right to reject any proposed display if in their opinion it is not suitable for display at the convention.

DEADLINES: A. This form can be submitted in person at convention registration time. B. If displays are shipped, they must arrive before July 9, 2005. C. If brought by person, they must be submitted at registration time.
